

Wisconsin Singers to Perform Live in Hortonville

The Wisconsin Singers are pleased to bring you this year's show-stopping performance of Don't Stop the Music. After 42 years, our singers, dancers, instrumentalists and technicians remain the best of the best at the UW, and are once again ready to put on an incredible, Broadway style, song and dance review. c. No matter what your age or musical preference, Don't Stop the Music has something for everyone!

As the nation's premiere collegiate performance group, the Wisconsin Singers entertains more than 50,000 people throughout the nation each year with their high-energy brand of entertainment, featuring professional choreography and musical arrangements. In addition, the Singers is highly committed to leadership training, providing student staff opportunities and mentoring programs to our members, and clinics and workshops for area youth around the state and nation. The Wisconsin Singers extended learning process is an excellent opportunity for students who love to perform to give back to the community, and make an immediate and dynamic impact on the world in which they live.
