Beneficiary Designation Instructions

Personally identifiable information such as your Social Security number, birth date, etc., will not be used for any purpose other than for the administration of the benefit programs administered by ETF.

Who Completes a Beneficiary Designation

If you are the owner of a Wisconsin Retirement System account from which a death benefit or life insurance benefit would be payable upon your death, you may file a Beneficiary Designation. Most WRS participants, some alternate payees (former spouses/domestic partners) of participants and some beneficiaries of deceased participants are eligible to file. If no Beneficiary Designation is on file WRS, death benefits and life insurance benefits will be paid according to the statutory standard sequence in effect on the date of death as explained in the "Naming Standard Sequence" section.

Special Note to Annuitants: If you selected a WRS joint and survivor annuity when you retired, you can never change the named survivor that you named on your WRS annuity application. Filing a Beneficiary Designation form does not change your named survivor.

Completing a Beneficiary Designation

Clarity. Our objective is to ensure prompt payment of any death benefits available upon your death, as specified by you on the Beneficiary Designation form. Clarity is necessary when you complete a Beneficiary Designation form, in order to avoid any questions as to your intent. ETF staff will review your designation and may reject it if it is unclear or confusing.

Note: Nicknames, overwriting, erasures, "white-out," crossed-out words, numerals denoting order of beneficiaries, special instructions and notations, references to future events, or use of the word "or" in naming beneficiaries will result in our rejecting your designation and returning it to you. Designations by letter, previously submitted designations that have been altered, designations with extra non-form pages attached will also be rejected.

Simplicity is important. Because your designation may remain in effect for many years and applies to all benefit plans and accounts to which you may become entitled, we recommend against filing lengthy or complex designations. If you wish to name a large number of beneficiaries, anticipate frequent changes in your beneficiaries, prefer to make special arrangements for each benefit plan or account, or want to impose special conditions on some benefits, you should consider naming your estate or a trust. Your death benefits administered by ETF would then be distributed according to your will or trust document. Payment is issued to the trust or estate, not to the trustee or estate representative.

Top of form. Your name, address, Social Security number, birth date and telephone number should be typed or printed in ink (not pencil) at the top of the Beneficiary Designation. This information is required.

Sign and date. After designating a beneficiary or beneficiaries, sign and date the designation at the bottom of the page. Unsigned and/or undated forms will be rejected and returned to you. Forms dated with a future rather than a current date will be rejected and returned to you.

Guardian/Conservators. A legal guardian or conservator of the estate who has appropriate legal authority may sign a Beneficiary Designation form on behalf of a participant. The guardian or conservator must also submit a photo-copy or facsimile of the court order of guardianship or conservatorship.

Submit the form to ETF at the address listed at the top of the form. Make a photocopy of the completed form and keep for your records. An acknowledgment notice will be sent to you.

Effective for all benefit plans and accounts. Unless otherwise specified on the Beneficiary Designation form (in the box below the tertiary section, above the signature line), a Beneficiary Designation form filed with ETF will apply to the benefits payable upon your death from all benefit plans and accounts administered by ETF. You may designate beneficiaries for separate benefit plans and WRS accounts. Separate benefit plans are life insurance and WRS benefits. This does not include benefits from the Deferred Compensation Program. The separate WRS accounts you may hold are your own account and/or those you may own as a beneficiary or an alternate payee.

If you wish to designate different beneficiaries for separate benefit plans or accounts, please contact ETF toll free at 1-877-533-5020 or 608-266-3285 (local Madison) to request forms and special instructions. If you file a Beneficiary Designation form for a specific benefit plan or account, and subsequently file a form which does not specify a benefit plan or account, the new designation will supersede all previously filed designations.

Please contact the administrator of the Deferred Compensation Program for details regarding naming or changing beneficiaries for your Deferred Compensation Program account.

Other Life Insurance. The designation of a beneficiary filed with ETF does not apply to any life insurance program not administered by ETF.

When effective or invalid. Once a properly completed Beneficiary Designation is received and approved by ETF, it remains in effect until you file a new designation or until there are no further benefits payable.

EXCEPTION: This designation will be set aside, and standard sequence will govern payment of your retirement account death benefits, if ETF makes a mandatory distribution of your retirement account to you. Designations continue to be applicable to any life insurance or beneficiary account that may be payable. If you subsequently reestablish eligibility for benefits after closing an account, the previously filed Beneficiary Designation is invalid.

NOTE: A divorce, annulment, or similar event will not invalidate a Beneficiary Designation which named your former spouse. To remove a former spouse as a beneficiary, you must file a new designation.

Payment progression. Your death benefits will be paid first to your primary beneficiaries. If some of your primary beneficiaries die before you, your death benefit will be divided among those primary beneficiaries who are still living. Secondary beneficiaries will receive benefits only if no primary beneficiary survives you. Tertiary beneficiaries will receive benefits only if none of your primary or secondary beneficiaries survives you.

If you wish to specify who shall receive a primary beneficiary's share if a primary beneficiary is deceased, you must use an Alternate Beneficiary Designation form. You can request this form from ETF.

Equal shares unless otherwise specified. If you name two or more persons as beneficiaries at one level (primary, secondary or tertiary), payment will be made in equal shares to the beneficiaries at that level unless you specify a percentage for different beneficiaries.

If you specify percentages to be paid to beneficiaries at one level, the percentages at each level must total 100%.
