INSTRUCTIONS: If the date of your move is:

- Before February 3, 2009, you are not eligible for a tuition waiver due to a move for the 2009-10 school year.
- On or after February 3, 2009, and before July 1, 2009, please go to Section II.
- After July 1, 2009, and before September 30, 2009, please go to Section III.
- After September 30, 2009, please go to Section IV.

You are responsible for transporting your children to and from school. If you are low-income (eligible for free or reduced-price meals), you may be eligible for reimbursement of your transportation costs. Please see Section VIII.

II. IF YOU MOVED ON OR AFTER FEBRUARY 3, 2009 AND PRIOR TO JULY 1, 2009

Please answer all of the following questions:

Yes No

 1. Was the student a resident of the Nonresident School District on January 9, 2009?

 2. Is the date of your move on/after February 3, 2009?

 3. Was student enrolled in the Nonresident School District continuously from January 9, 2009, to the end of the 2008-09 school term?

 4. Does the student continue to reside in Wisconsin?

If the answers to questions 1 through 4 are "yes," the nonresident school district must approve an "additional year" tuition waiver for the 2009-10 school year. The resident school district may deny the tuition waiver if the cost of the special education and related services in the student's IEP is an "undue financial burden."

III. IF YOU MOVED ON OR AFTER JULY 1, 2009 AND PRIOR TO SEPTEMBER 30, 2009

Please answer all of the following questions:

Yes No

 1. Was the student a resident of the Nonresident School District on January 9, 2009?

If "Yes", continue in this section. If "No," please go to Section V.

 2. Was student enrolled in the Nonresident School District continuously from January 9, 2009, to the end of the 2008-09 school term?

 3. Does the student continue to reside in Wisconsin?

 4. Was the student a resident of the Nonresident School District on July 1, 2009?

If the answer to all of the above questions is "yes," the nonresident school district must approve either a "current year" or "additional year" waiver for the 2009-10 school year. If an "additional year" waiver is approved, the resident school district may deny the tuition waiver if the cost of the special education and related services in the student's IEP is an "undue financial burden."

IV. IF YOU MOVED ON OR AFTER SEPTEMBER 30, 2009

Please answer all of the following questions:

Yes No

1. Was the student a resident of and enrolled in the Nonresident School District on either September 18, 2009, or January 8, 2010, or both?

2. Was the student enrolled in the Nonresident School District for at least 20 school days in the 2009-10 school year?

If the answer to both questions is "yes" the nonresident school district must approve a current year tuition waiver for the remainder of the 2009-10 school year. If "No," please go to Section V.

V. CURRENT YEAR PERMISSIVE WAIVER

Please answer the following question:

Yes No

1. Was the student enrolled in and a resident of the Nonresident School District on July 1, 2009?

If no, the student is not eligible for a tuition waiver for the 2009-2010 school year. If yes, the nonresident school district may grant a permissive current year tuition waiver or may deny the waiver.

VI. ACTION BY NONRESIDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

The application for a tuition waiver to attend the 2009-10 school year is:

Approved. The tuition waiver is an "additional year" waiver, OR a "current year" waiver

THIS APPROVAL IS ONLY FOR THE 2009-10 SCHOOL YEAR. IF THE STUDENT MOVED ON OR AFTER FEBRUARY 2, 2010, THE STUDENT MAY APPLY SEPARATELY FOR A TUITION WAIVER FOR THE 2010-11 SCHOOL YEAR. ALL OTHER STUDENTS MUST APPLY FOR OPEN ENROLLMENT DURING THE FEBRUARY 1-19, 2010, APPLICATION PERIOD FOR THE 2010-11 SCHOOL YEAR

Denied. Reason for denial:

Student does not meet eligibility criteria under any of sections II, III, or IV

Student meets eligibility criteria under section V, but the nonresident school district denies the permissive waiver.

VII. ACTION BY RESIDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT AND NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL

To be completed by the resident school district only if the nonresident school district has approved an additional year waiver and the student receives special education or related services:

The application for a tuition waiver to attend the above-named nonresident school district in the 2009-10 school year is:

Approved Denied

Reason for denial: The resident school board has determined that the cost of providing the special education and related services required in the student's individualized education program (IEP) is an "undue financial burden."

Notice of Right to Appeal: The student or parent may appeal this denial to the Department of Public Instruction within 30 days of the date the notice is postmarked or delivered to the parent, whichever occurs first. The DPI is required to uphold the school board's decision unless it finds the decision was arbitrary or unreasonable. The appeal may be filed on DPI form PI-9418 or may be filed in the form of a letter or legal brief. The appeal shall state the decision being appealed, the specific reasons for the appeal, including why the appellant believes the decision was arbitrary or unreasonable, and other facts and evidence relevant to the appeal. The appeal must be signed by the appellant or representative of the appellant. A copy of this completed form or other notice of denial must be included with the appeal.

Send the appeal to: DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
