

Batman

Batman's story begins with his parents' death. Bruce and his family were walking home from a theater. They walked into a crime alley and then his parents were shot. Before the police arrived Batman knelt by his parents. He said he wanted revenge.

Bruce Wayne studied a lot of martial arts and other techniques to help him fight crime. He uses these techniques to fight crime and other super heroes. He also has a secret headquarters under his mansion so no one knew who he was.

Like all good super heroes, Batman has a unique costume. In his suit he has smoke bombs, frag bombs, and other non-lethal weapons. Batman has vehicles. Some of his vehicles include: the Batmobile, Batcycle, Batboat, Batplane, and a Batcopter.

Batman has many enemies. Here are some examples of his enemies. First there is the Joker. The Joker looks like a clown, but he is very mean. He wants to murder people. Another enemy is Poison Ivy. She is a plant lover. Also, her first kiss is when she turned into Poison Ivy because the guy's lips had poison on them.

In summary, Batman is pretty neat. He has a lot of enemies and a lot nonlethal weapons. He learned a lot about different kinds of martial arts. He has a lot of vehicles. Therefore, Batman is the most supreme super hero there is.
