

My home town hero

My dad's had a busy childhood my dad said. My Dad was 10 when he started to work on the neighbor's farm. Every morning he woke up early to work on the neighbor's farm after he came back home to get on the bus to school when he got back he went to work. His summers were fun, he played video games like Nintendo's and Apple computer. He went camping a lot with his brothers in a rv.

Why my dad is my hero is because he helps me with my sports, school, and pretty much everything. He pushes me to do things that I don't want to butt sometimes I get away with it. My dad helps me with my sports he tells me good job and helps me on what I did wrong. some other things is like fixing stuff he tells me what it is and tells me how to fix it.

My Dad's life now is normal. He is 40 years old and has 2 kids Brady and Makayla. He is a great father and helps with pretty much everything. He gives us stuff that some kids don't get so we are pretty happy to have him.

He works for ATC.He works in his shop a lot. He's married to Aimee. He teaches me things that most 12 year olds don't know how to do.

He is the world's best dad. He had a tough childhood. He is the best and he teaches me a lot to be a good kid.
