

Kylo Ren

Kylo Ren is the new face of the dark side, even more powerful than his evil predecessors.

Kylo Ren is the son of Han Solo and Princess Leia. His power was noticed as a young boy and was trained by Luke Skywalker along with many other younglings. He was seduced to the dark side by an evil leader named Snoke and turned on the little that was left of the Jedi.

Kylo Ren is an extremely powerful force user, surpassing the powers of Darth Vader. He is, as stated, extremely strong in the force, strong enough to hold a blaster bolt in mid air and walk around freely without putting up any effort. Kylo Ren is also strong enough to probe his prisoners brains. Unlike Vader, Kylo Ren pulls his victims to him and chokes them face to face.

His outfit consists of a black cape draped over his shoulders and black and silver body armor covering from his shoulders to his shins along with a dark themed black and silver helmet.

Kylo Ren's enemy is mostly his family ranging everywhere from his father to his self. Kylo Ren struggles with imbalance of the force between the lightside and the Darkside. He feels that murdering his father will prove to Snoke that he is truly a Sith apprentice.
