

Dad

My dad is by far the coolest guy ever. He sets a great example for my brother and me. My dad has great intelligence. He takes me to skate parks and races.

He teaches me the right way to live life. He is so cool because he takes me hunting, shreds dirt bikes with me, and even rides snowboards! I love talking with him and learning lots from him.

He shreds dirt bikes and makes me better! I love hanging out with him and fixing stuff with him. He is willing to get down and dirty working on things. He loves race cars and even used to race them.

My dad is outgoing. He is one funny guy that anyone would like to talk to. My dad likes to compete. My dad raced a variety of race cars such as dirt late models, modifieds, snowmobiles, wrestled for HHS, and even raced a BMX bike! He spoils us with his fun gifts!

He pulls funny jokes, throws me across the house, plays football with me, and even will ride bikes with me! He helps me succeed at everything I do. I absolutely love him!
