Policy Statement:

The Board of Education will annually hold an election of a President, Vice President, Clerk and Treasurer.

Rationale:

An annual election of officers allows the Board of Education to organize the administration of all Board functions.

Scope: District-wide

Responsibility: Board of Education

Implementation:

1. Election of Board Officers

At the first regular meeting each year, following the Spring Election, the Board shall elect from its membership, for a term of one (1) year, a President, Vice President, Clerk and Treasurer. A simple majority of the total Board shall elect the officers.

2. In case of vacancies of members, the vacancies shall be filled by simple majority vote of the entire Board membership. The term shall be until the next Spring Election, at which time the vacated position shall again be open.
