Policy Statement:

Students by their choice may elect to attend religious training and other activities during the course of the school year.

Rationale:

The Hortonville Area School District Board of Education recognizes the importance of keeping one school night free for religious instruction and church events for students.

Scope: District-wide

Responsibility: All Building Administrators

Implementation:

1. In keeping with this policy the Districts will seek to avoid scheduling school activities for students on Wednesday evenings after 6:30 p.m.
2. Each specific time change in this policy shall have prior Board of Education approval.
