

Dear Parents,

The first day of the 2011 - 2012 school year is history, and we all survived despite those "first day with a new class jitters". We spent a good share of time getting acclimated and getting to know each other. I can already tell it's going to be a good year.

Knowing your child well helps me to plan activities and lessons that maintain interest and meet individual needs. Today in class your child wrote a short paragraph beginning, "Something my teachers and classmates should know about me is..." At this time I would like you to ponder a similar question. "What should my child's teacher know about my child?" If you could take a few moments to jot down some thoughts to send back to school with your son/daughter, I would really appreciate it.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Danke

Dear Parents,

The first day of the 2011 - 2012 school year is history, and we all survived despite those "first day with a new class jitters". We spent a good share of time getting acclimated and getting to know each other. I can already tell it's going to be a good year.

Knowing your child well helps me to plan activities and lessons that maintain interest and meet individual needs. Today in class your child wrote a short paragraph beginning, "Something my teachers and classmates should know about me is..." At this time I would like you to ponder a similar question. "What should my child's teacher know about my child?" If you could take a few moments to jot down some thoughts to send back to school with your son/daughter, I would really appreciate it.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Danke

Mrs. Danke