8th Grade Goals
Language Arts 2010-2011

“My philosophy of life is that if we make up our mind what we are going to make of our lives, then work hard toward that goal, we never lose – somehow we win out.”
- Former President Ronald Reagan

By setting goals, you can accomplish so much more this year! We are different types of learners with different strengths and weaknesses, so we need to set individual goals for language this year. Everyone has some strength that will be used! Reflect on your strengths and weaknesses to set your goals.

What are my strengths and how will I use these to help me succeed in language this year?
(Strengths can be ANYTHING you're good at, even if it doesn't have to do with language.)

What are some of my weaknesses and how will I improve upon these weaknesses?

Areas I need to improve on:

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> studying for test/quizzes | <input type="checkbox"/> completing homework on time | <input type="checkbox"/> handwriting |
| <input type="checkbox"/> following directions | <input type="checkbox"/> effort on projects | <input type="checkbox"/> spelling |
| <input type="checkbox"/> my attitude | <input type="checkbox"/> asking questions when I need to | <input type="checkbox"/> writing more/longer |
| <input type="checkbox"/> using my class time wisely | <input type="checkbox"/> using correct grammar | |

2 areas I will focus on first:
