

Write the sentences correctly.

1. For our reading assignment in English class, we're reading the book Chew on this.

2. Yesterday we read the chapter called Big, and tomorrow we're to read Your Way.

Rewrite the sentence using active voice.

3. In this book, information is shared about fast food and what is wrong with it.

Rewrite the sentence to fix the misplaced modifier.

4. The authors say that kids can change the world by changing their eating habits in their book.

Write the sentences correctly.

1. Any U.S. air force aircraft carrying the President is called Air Force One.

2. The first plane named Air Force One was used by President John F. Kennedy.

Write the missing word.

3. Kennedy's plane carried seven other presidents, in addition to _____.

he him his

Write parentheses (), commas (,), or ellipses (. . .) to complete the sentence.

4. Officially known as SAM 26000 _____ for Special Air Mission _____ it last flew in 1998.

Write the sentences correctly.

1. The Louisiana Purchase was a land deal among the United States and France.

2. The U.S. paid France $15 million for more than 800,000 square miles of land.

Rewrite the sentence to fix the misplaced modifier.

3. The U.S. government made an advance payment to France of $3 million in gold on the land.

The Latin root minuere means “to make small.” What does the bold word in the sentence mean?

4. Some U.S. leaders thought that the deal was unconstitutional and that it diminished the power of the states.

Write the sentences correctly.

1. The marula tree is one of southern Africa's most valued trees.

2. Not only is it beautiful, it's also a good source of nutrition, and provides income for farmers.

Write the words that make this an interrogative sentence. Add the appropriate end punctuation.

3. _____ that many products are made from this tree

Did you know It's a fact

Use context clues to figure out the meaning of the bold word. Write the meaning on the line.

4. Marula oil has made so much money worldwide that new marula-based products are now being commercialized.

Read the dictionary entry.

- model
- a. a small, detailed copy of something
 - b. the style or design of an item
 - c. a person who sets a good example
 - d. to display by wearing or posing
 - e. worthy of imitation

Which meaning of model is used in the sentence? Write the letter on the line.

1. My mom asked me to model my new ski jacket and pants. _____
2. In science class, I made a model of a hand that shows how the muscles work. _____
3. My brother is a model student who gets straight As on every report card. _____

Write a paragraph using at least three different meanings of the word model.

4. _____

Write the sentences correctly.

1. The microwave oven at my house has a popcorn button but it don't work very good.
-

2. The problem with our microwave, is that it's old and no more puts out enough power.
-

Rewrite the sentence to fix the pronoun shift.

3. People should use the listening method if you burn a lot of popcorn.
-

Rewrite the sentence using standard English.

4. When the popping slows way down to, like, one second between pops, like quick, turn off the microwave.
-

Write the sentences correctly.

1. Atoms are the tiny particuls which make up everything on Earth.
-

2. The periodic table list all known elements and organizes it by common properties.
-

Underline the dependent clause in the sentence.

3. The chemist Dmitri Mendeleev created the first table in 1869 because he was convinced there was an order to the elements.

Add punctuation to the sentence.

4. Mendeleev once said It is the function of science to discover the existence of a general reign of order in nature...

Write the sentences correctly.

1. King Henry VIII reigned as the king of England from 1509 to 1547.

2. Henry spoke several languages, liked sports, and wrote books and music.

Underline the idiom in the sentence. Then write the meaning on the line.

3. Known for his fancy lifestyle and outgoing personality, Henry VIII was larger than life.

Complete the sentence with the most appropriate word. Then explain your answer.

4. Some people say that Henry was a _____ who ruled with fear.
bully tyrant villain

Write the sentences correctly.

1. My brother and I want to start a beekeeping business.

2. We signed up to take a beekeeping course from a school in their town.

Underline the part of the sentence that helps you know the meaning of the bold word. Write the meaning on the line.

3. The comprehensive class will tell us how to start, maintain, and care for a bee colony.

The Latin prefix ante means "before." Circle the word that has a meaning similar to the bold word.

4. We anticipate that we'll learn everything we need to know to be successful.

a. understand b. know c. predict

Read these mathematics words and their meanings.

congruent having the same size and shape

equivalent having the same value, use, or meaning similar looking almost the same

Which word best completes each sentence?

1. The two countries have different money systems, but they spend _____ amounts on public transportation.
2. Your shoes are _____ to mine except that mine are a larger size.
3. The house we bought was _____ to the model home we looked at, so we knew what it would look like before we moved in.

Write a paragraph using all three words from the box.

4. _____

