

SaLT: Summer at Lawrence Theatre

A week of creativity, collaboration, and theatrical fun for kids in Grades 2–5!

- Whether you're a seasoned performer or stepping into the spotlight for the first time, SaLT is your chance to dive into acting, movement, and storytelling in an exciting, supportive environment.
- Led by two Lawrence University professors and eight dynamic student teachers, you'll explore the magic of theatre and dance through games, workshops, and performance.

One unforgettable week in June, 16-21

Discover your voice. Build your confidence. Make theatre magic.

Spots are limited—don't miss your cue!

More information here:

Just like salt is essential to life, we believe theatre is essential to education.

Questions? Contact rosea@lawrence.edu