 - Hortonville High School earned $115,618.41 through the state’s Technical Incentive Grant that awards schools for each student that completes an industry-recognized certification. This year the state awarded $843. 93 for each of our 137 students that completed a certification. Huge shout-out goes out to our Business Education, Family and Consumer Science, Technical Education, Computer Science, and Counseling Staff for the work they have done with our students aligning their high school course work to ensure students are career and college ready upon graduation. Also, thank you to Tania Kilpatrick and Dawn Grenzer for their assistance with the Youth Apprenticeship and ACP programming.
