

The Greatest Show Jumper

Have you heard of Natalie the greatest show jumper? When she was born she could already ride horses. As she grew she learned to jump and gallop. A week later she was on a trail with her horse

Misty, as they came back from their trail ride she saw something unusual in her mail box. She said, "What could this be?" So, she looked in her mailbox and it was an invitation to a horse competition, it wasn't just any competition it was a JUMPING COMPETITION!!!!!!!!!!!!!! "I love those!" said yelled. But it also said ~PS~ We don't have any competitors so do you think you can help? "Of course, I will set up fliers!" she said. For the horse competition they finally got people to come to the horse show. She was up first, so the caller said, "Natalie Weber." She jumps but as she was coming to the second jump she FELL OFF!!!! But still she got a first-place trophy. The crowd went wild when she won. After the competition she disappeared into the fog and never came back. People say... her horse could jump as high as the clouds...
