

Owen the Shark Boy

January 17, 1964

Have you ever heard of Owen the shark boy? He was born and his first word was "shark." He used swim in the ocean so much that he started to turn into a shark. So when he was older he was a deep sea explorer. One day when he was deep sea exploring he saw a shark and he said to himself, "Should I get closer or should I go to the boat?" He got closer to the shark and then the shark attacked him. He was never seen again. But people say if you listen closely you can hear him say "I love sharks oh yes I love sharks."
