Adverbs Fun!

Adverbs modify or describe verbs, other adverbs or adjectives. They answer the questions about the relationship of place, time, manner, and degree.

How? Examples: suddenly, quickly, fast, easily, quietly, patiently

When? Examples: yesterday, today, tomorrow, now, often

Where? Examples: here, there, everywhere, anywhere, nowhere

To What Degree?

How Much?

In What Way?

To What Extent? Examples: very, quite, rather, extremely, really, too

Many adverbs, but not all, end in the suffix - ly. Some other adverb suffixes are - ward (direction) and -wise (pertaining to)

See if you can find the adverbs in the following sentences:

- 1. Sandy read the story aloud.
- 2. Bryan waited impatiently for her to finish.
- 3. They were going to have lunch afterward.
