Dear Editor,

I love how your magazine is focused on what people like. Your magazine is so helpful when you need to find something for your friend's birthday or for your parents anniversary. My friend loved the snowboarding earrings, you recommend for a sporty girl. And the blueberry scented candle for someone who likes relaxing.

Love, Rachel Jahner

Hello Mrs. Editor. My name is Banana Yellow. I really like that your magazine includes a variety of different things in your magazine, but I think you need to narrow it down. You would still call the magazine What's Hot, but you would have one edition around another thing. That means that you could also have several editions a month thus earning more money per month.

-Banana Yellow

Dear Readers:

I hope that you find this magazine interesting and helpful. It offers information about a variety of things that people like. There are articles, short stories and advertisements that tell you all about the latest trends and give you ideas about what other people like.

As the editor of this magazine, I wanted to have a magazine that many people would enjoy. This is why I decided to do a broad topic and include so many different things people like.

Creating this magazine was fun but challenging. I enjoyed reading articles submitted to me. The most challenging part of it was that I had to refuse some people because of space and time. I received a lot of great articles and got to know about many people's interests. The most interesting article I received was Carson Buss' article about One Direction, the band.

One of my biggest struggles was creating articles for other people and still needing to put my magazine together. The pressures of meeting deadlines were tough, because I have lots of outside activities and needed to balance my time .

One of the biggest rewards of doing this project is that I get to see what people like to do and learn about other people. I also thought that I was very lucky, because I got great articles!!! Some of the best articles included information about : facts about M&M's, interesting facts about dogs, information on RC trucks and hair fashions.

Thank you to all the readers, who have supported my magazine and who enjoy reading every issue. I hope you like it.

Sincerely,

Thalia Mann

Editor, What's Hot

Those Cute Little Pooches

How do you not fall in love with them? Yorkshire Terriers also known as Yorkies are feisty little bundles of joy. They are little dogs with BIG personalities. Yorkies are one of the most popular dog breeds in the United States. Yorkies get along well with strangers but more aggressive with other dogs. Yorkies are very affectionate and love to cuddle and sit on your lap. Yorkies are very smart and easy to train. They learn new things very quickly at an above average rate. Yorkies shed barely any hair at all. You'll rarely find any hair around your home! Make sure to cut your Yorkies hair about every 2 months. Surprisingly even with their larger-than-life personalities, Yorkies don't mind wearing bows in their hair. I mean they look DANG cute!

Now don't you want one of those wrinkly fellas? Yep, I'm talking about them adorable Pugs! Pugs are entitled a big dog in a small body. Pugs are one of the oldest dogs known to man. Pugs having short hair are VERY easy to comb. Pugs are very strong dogs. Pugs need to be taken on daily walks to keep their weight. Pugs catch colds easily and get stressed out by hot and cold weather. Pugs have a very happy-go-lucky attitude. They are very animated and peppy! They are also playful and rambunctious, making them a non-stop laughing jack-in-the-box. Pugs have boredom without a variety of training. Pugs are very sensitive, and often don't "Save those tears for their pillow!" Pugs are great watchdogs. Pugs get along well with other dogs which can get rid of your worries. They also get along well with children, what a plus! Who wouldn't want a pug!

One Direction is the biggest boyband in the world and this is their story. They started on the X Factor in 2010 as solo artists and came out a group thanks to Simon Cowell. When they formed the group together they didn't even think of a name or even if they could sing together, they decided to get to know each other first. Right when they got to know more about each other they knew they were going to be really good friends. I think One Direction caught my eye from there music. At first I didn't really like them but when i listened to there music, I suddenly fell in love with them. One Direction consists of 5 boys; Niall Horan, Harry Styles, Liam Payne, Zayn Malik and Louis Tomlinson. They all are from the United Kingdom except f Niall which is from Ireland. They go from the ages of 19 to 22, the oldest is Louis and the youngest is Harry. Their first hit was "What Makes You Beautiful". The year they decided to bring their music to America was in 2011, they didn't think they were going to make it that big here but suddenly that changed. Their first album was named "Up All Night" and it has a total of 15 songs. The album got 3 awards and it went worldwide in 2012. One year after that album came out they soon came out with their next album called "Take Me Home", this album was a huge success for them and it became number 1 in more than 40 countries. I would probably say this was their best album so far in my opinion just because compared to their first album they grew a lot with their voices. They went on a worldwide arena tour with this album and it was sold out in america in less than 30 minutes.

- Harry came up of the name of One Direction.
- Niall just got his braces off in 2013.

The tour started in the O2 arena in London and went from February through November 2013. During there Take Me Home tour they decided to make a documentary on there life on the road it came out on August 29th 2013 and it was called "This Is Us". On May 16th 2013 they announced that they were going to come out wi a new stadium tour which is called the "Where We Are Tour" (fun fact: I actually am going to one of their shows in Chicago). They decided to donate some of the money from the ticket sales to the Stand Up to Concert charity.

On November 23rd they decided to have a day to thank the fans so it was called "1D Day". They made a video cast that was live for a little bit over 7 hours filled with games and celebrity guests. On October 11th their third album came out and it is called "Midnight Memories". The album was number 1 in both the United Kingdom and the United States, they were the first british band to have a number one on the billboard 200 charts. On December 7th there movie came out and the beat the record of copies sold in the United Kingdom. Here are some fun facts about One Direction:

- Zayn has two fears; one of water and the other on heights.
- Harry is a huge fan of the Green Bay Packers

- Liam has a strange phobia of spoons.

I think i will always enjoy One Direction's mu and I hope that they will still be performing for long period of time.

We have all heard parents say that they wish they had more time as a couple. After couples have children, obligations and their children's activities tend to take up the majority of their time. Sleep deprivation during the baby and toddler years, gives way to busy athletic and dance schedules during the preteen years.

Some couples have taken to starting the tradition of date nights. This is a night dedicated to just their spouse, and it is a time to reconnect without the kids underfoot. The concept is not necessarily new, but it has become more popularized among Generation X couples. These nights are planned in advance, and can be done once a week or once a month. They can be scheduled during the week, or they can be weekend excursions that include overnight stays. The important thing is for the couple to have time to spend focusing on their life partner, to make sure that they maintain a good connection during a time when their lives are consumed with the obligations of work, domestic duties and the responsibilities of child-rearing.

Here are ten great things to do during date night. Some are one night events and others are weekend excursions. They range from $40.00 to $400.00 and can be done during any time of year.

1. Maybe the most popular date night might be dinner and a movie. The dinner allows couples to talk and enjoy having food prepared for them, while the movie is a chance to unwind and immerse themselves in a story that is not a cartoon or Disney Tween show.

2. Casino nights are also a fun way to spend time. Couples can eat, try their luck at the tables or on slot machines, and even take in a show. A lot of musicians that were popular during Gen X youth, are now playing at casinos for a very reasonable ticket price.

3. A night at the coffee house. Places like Harmony Cafe in Appleton, WI offer couples a place to get specialty coffee, a real treat, while giving an atmosphere that inspires conversation. They even at casinos for a very reasonable ticket price.

3. A night at the coffee house. Places like Harmony Cafe in Appleton, WI offer couples a place to get specialty coffee, a real treat, while giving an atmosphere that inspires conversation. They even have live acoustic music and open mic nights. .

4. A walk in the park is a free way for couples to get some quality time in. It is great for exercise, and burns off calories and stress. It also gives couples a chance to talk without interruption.

5. Miniature golf or batting cages are a fun way to bring a little competition to your date night. This can be at an outdoor facility in the summer or an indoor facility in the winter months.

6. Joining a volleyball or bowling league is a great way to spend your date night. It allows time with other couples. It also forces couples to commit to a night, since they made a commitment to a season.

7. A overnight or weekend trip to Door County. Options are endless from lighthouse tours to a ferry ride to Washington island. During the fall, cherries are ripe and the autumn leaves look beautiful. It is an inexpensive night or weekend and can really refresh parents.

8. A trip to a local museum or art gallery is a fun way to take in some culture without the kids. Appleton offers a great art gallery as well as a wonderful museum. It is a great adult atmosphere for parents.

9. Shopping, or even just window shopping is a great way to spend date night. This is especially helpful around times of birthdays and holidays. Couples can get ideas on what to get as gifts for children, relatives and friends.

10. Going to a comedy show is a great way to spend a date night. You can laugh and relax. It is a great way to relieve the stress of a busy life.

M&M's

Forrest Mars Sr., son of Frank Mars, got the idea for M&M's when he saw Spanish Civil War soldiers eating chocolate pellets with a hard shell making the candy melt in your mouth not your hands. The 1st M&M's were made in five colors and served in a cardboard tube. In 1948, M&M's changed the package and the M&M's were put in a brown bag.

In 1950, the first black "M" was printed on the candies. The "M" was changed to white in 1954. Peanut M&M's were introduced in 1954, but were only made in the tan color. It was not until the 1960's that other colors were added. 1954 also brought us the slogan "melt in your mouth, not your hands" and the M&M's characters were first on TV.

In 1980, M&M's were introduced internationally to Australia, Austria, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Malaysia, the Netherlands, Spain, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom. The candy was sent into space for the 1st time, and has been a part of all missions since.

In 1991, Peanut Butter M&M's were released and the world was happy. In 1995, Mars asked to vote on which of blue, pink, or purple would take the place of tan M&M's. Blue was the winner. In 1999, Crispy M&M's were released. In 2000, "Plain" M&M's were renamed "Milk Chocolate" M&M's.

In 2009, M&M's varieties of M&M's: Strawberry'd Peanut Butter" and "Coconut" came out . In April 2010, the made "pretzel".
