

Jalo

Magazine

Get the scoop on your favorite celebrities!

In this issue:

How I got attacked by
Adele by Clara Brown

All about Demi Lavoto by
Thalia Mann

Embarassing moments!

Dear Editor of Jalo Magazine,

I love your magazine; it gives me all the details about a celebrity's life. The one article that focuses on One Direction makes me smile and laugh. Your magazine has all the correct facts and gossip. Your magazine never ever lies. That's why I subscribed to your magazine monthly.

Thank you for all your gossip and facts,

Rachel Jahner

Dear Editor,

I loved your last embarrassing moments especially when Bella Thorne fell flat on her face at red Carpet events. I was wondering if you could do that again. They give me a good laugh when I'm sad. So I was wondering just maybe if you could have more embarrassing moments.

Sincerely,

Ana Jung

Small Town, Missouri

Dear Readers,

I am Jaden Lohff, Editor of Jalo Magazine. I chose to write about famous people because they are cool and its fascinating to learn about them. I think that their lives are very interesting. Being famous is really hard, and I like to learn about their struggles. I like to know what problems they face, and things they have to do to fulfill their dream.

For putting my magazine together, it took a while but I finished. I am not good at multi-tasking and I get easily distracted, so it was hard to stay on track.

My favorite celebrities include Selena Gomez, Taylor Swift, One Direction, Austin Mahone, and Bridgit Mendler. My favorite person in One Direction is Harry Styles. I like Austin Mahone's songs, some include Say your just a friend, what about love, say something, and mmm yeah. He has a cool beat, and he usually features Flo Rida.

My favorite article that someone wrote for me was about Rihanna. It was by Drew Holm, and she did a great job. She really talked about her songs and albums, which was nice because I don't know a lot about Rihanna. My favorite article i wrote was about a clothing store. I talked about the different styles and included the prices. I put a lot of hard work into my magazine, and other's.

I'm Jaden Lohff and I was born in California. I have one brother, his name is Taylor. I have two dogs, they are Dobermans. Their names are Abby and Cooper. My parents are divorced. I live in Greenville, Wisconsin. I am eleven years old.

Sincerely,

Jaden Lohff

Editor in Chief.

Adele

On January 31, 2014, I was purchasing a Chanel perfume from the store, Sephora. I was about to check-out and purchase my perfume, when a woman came sprinting through the doors and through the store until she got to me. The woman literally took the perfume bottle from my hands and flung it toward the ground. It was all kind of confusing after that, the shattering, the sweet scent of the perfume drifting into my lungs, the other young lady at the checkout "counter" screaming into a walkie-talkie hoisted on one the loops in her workpants, and after that, there was a buzzing of voices talking in harsh tones to the woman who allegedly "attacked" me, for the perfume bottle. A second later, she was out of the store and mall cops began questioning me. I asked what was going on, and that was when one of the cops told me that the music artist, Adele, came running into the store and "attacked" me. I asked why Adele would want to attack me, or my perfume!

I later learned that Adele had been visiting the U.S. to visit some of her family, but I still didn't understand why she slaughtered my perfume bottle. Once of the mall cops suggested drugs, but the test came back negative. I was honestly, just very confused. Apparently, that afternoon, Adele was questioned, and her answers were on "the News." I watched questioningly while Adele spoke to a woman dressed in grey. "You see, I came to the U.S. to visit my family, but they surprised me with a party, and I was a bit stressed. I just got the urge to do something totally insane, so I took perfume out of a woman's hands and smashed it to the floor. I'm not really sure what came over me. One minute I was buying clothes, the next, I was sprinting down the mall into a shop."

Adele was later arrested for vandalism - of the store- and I have not yet again been chased down by a famous singer .

Karaoke Microphone

Try the new microphone. Every singing artists uses the new microphone. Everyone order on line at newthingstobuy.com

People know everything about stars. Now, you can find out everything about a star. Know though, were not talking about literally stars, we're talking about pop stars.

Today we are going to talk about Demi Lovato. You see her, and you know her. Now, were going to tell you everything about Demi Lovato that we know. Then we'll see what we find.

First well start with her early life. She was born in Albuquerque, New Mexico on August 20, 1992. She had an older sister, Dallas, and her younger sister Madison.

She was on Barney and Friends with Selena Gomez at the age of 10. When she was 15, she got a role on a Disney show called As the Bell Rings and was later cast in the movie Camp Rock. In 2008, she had her own album that was called Don't Forget. In 2009, Demi Lovato got the starring role in Sonny with a Chance, another Disney show. She also began recording songs with a band called The Jonas Brothers.

In 2010, Demi Lovato checked into a rehabilitation center for eating disorders, and self-harming. Some of this happened because she became a star at a very young age. Because she went to rehab, her show, Sonny with a Chance was ended.

After she got out of rehab, Demi Lovato released her third album called Unbroken. She also recorded "Let it Go," a single from the hit Disney film "Frozen." She has turned her life around and says she wished she had listened to her parents.

Demi Lovato has A.L.S. been very interested in the environment. She actually travelled to Kenya in 2013 to work on a project called Free the Children. In 2009, she was also named the Ambassador of Education.

Interesting facts:

1. Her father died in 2013
2. Her father was of Mexican descent
3. She started playing piano at age 7
4. She was bullied so badly in school that she asked to be home schooled.
5. In 2012 she became a contributing editor to "Seventeen" magazine.
6. She is considered a mezzo-soprano

ME AND MILEY

By: Camden Thern

One day during a hot summer day I decided I was going to have a pool party with my friends. But I needed to get some snacks and drinks so I went up in my bedroom and got a couple of dollars.

and then I decided I had to call my mom and tell her that I was going to go to the store to get some snacks and some drinks from the store and she said ok.

I went on my way and started to walk to the store. When I arrived at the store I had to look at the list of things I needed and then I started to find the things and after. Everything on the list was found

I realized there was one more thing on the list to find that was on the list. And I kept going up and down the rows to find the thing I needed to have for the pool party.

And just when I found the thing I needed I saw Miley Cyrus. And when I saw her she burst out singing the song wrecking ball.

And I hate that song so I threw a box of candy at her to shut her up and she finally stopped singing the horrible song.

And then I ended up running because the party was about to start and on my way home I had a feeling someone was following me

And when I arrived and had everything ready for the Party and after all of my friends were here and just when we all

Were about to begin the party. And then I heard the doorbell rang and I wondered who it was and it was Miley Cyrus sing the song wrecking ball and that is the worst song so I slammed the door on her and got back to all the fun

And during all of that fun I told everyone at my party that what happened today with me and Miley Cyrus and we all had great laughs and had so much fun. Today I still remember exactly what happened that day. I will never regret going to the store, and then ending up throwing candy at her!

Table of Contents

2	Letter from the Editor
3.....	How I got attacked by Adele
4.....	Demi Lovato
5.....	Miley Cyrus Story